

HW 1- Database

1.5

2) If the prices of the drugs were sold at a fixed rate than we can add price attribute to the drug entity set and get rid of the price from the sell relationship set.

3) Date information can no longer be modeled as an attribute of prescription. A person has to create a new entity set called prescription date and make that prescription a four way set which involves additional entity set.